Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI KIREN RIJIJU)

(a) to (b): Only one case of cyber related crime against girls from North-Eastern Region in the NCT of Delhi has been registered in Delhi Police during the year 2014 (up to 31.7.2014).

(c): Delhi Police has also taken the following proactive initiatives for the security of the North-Eastern people:-

i) Standing Order No. 383/2014 to tackle the problems faced by students and others from North-Eastern States in Delhi.

ii) Special Helpline No. 1093 has been introduced on 14th Feb, 2014.

iii) Special Cell for North-Eastern residents has started functioning at Nanakpura, Delhi and police personnel especially from North-Eastern States have been posted in the Cell.

iv) 34 representatives have been appointed from the students and volunteers as Delhi Police representatives for North-Eastern States. They have been given training on how to assist the victims from North-Eastern States during the crisis.

v) An officer of the rank of Joint Commissioner of Police (IGP) has been appointed as Nodal Officer for North-Eastern States related issues.

vi) As and when any case is reported, Delhi Police promptly registers a case.

(d) to (e): There is no dispute over jurisdiction between police and other agencies dealing with cyber crimes.
